CAPO II // ( Intro : mi-fa#-sol#-la )

A ( S L O W ) A A D A
 I used to have the world on a string , Just like a Yo-Yo , when I would sing ,
 D D A E A
 No matter what happened , back I'd spring , But after she gave me back my ring ,
 E A
 I lost , my soul and (all) my dreams. (All I want to do , was just scream)

I begged my girl, I cried loudly please , Please do not leave me down , I'd shout ,
 Do-- not leave me on my ben--ded knees , My mind , was full of fear and doubt ,
 She left , and I dropped out .

A A A D D D A
But if you had seen me , at my best, I kno--w , you would have been , impressed,
 D D A E E A
I played my guitar, I had my girl , I dressed , in a suit , with a vest ,
 E E A
Yeah you , should have seen me , at my best .

(Now my gui-) tar , shares , my empty bed , I strum it alone, most of the time ,
 I like playing here ; maybe it's the meds , I can still get high , past my prime ,
 Yeah I , .... get high, all the time ....

I tried to pick myself up, at least , But, found (that) I was too down to rise ,
 Like a loaf of bread without the yeast , I lost , the sunshine in my eyes ,
 All , I could see , were cloudy skies ....

CHORUS :

If you , have been , where I am now , You know what I'm talkin' , about ,
 If not, then you're lucky, somehow , You have , no fear and no doubt ,
 You're still , on top, not down and out ..... .

CHORUS : + Yeah you // Spoken > should have seen me ..... at my best (end) // A
